

Primary Care

Primary Care offers an extensive range of treatment modalities with emphasis on health care prevention. Primary Care physicians strive for the achievement of perfection in quality care for our veterans in a number of primary areas of care.

Services Offered

- Treatment for ongoing, chronic diseases
 - Diabetes
 - Hypertension
 - Heart Diseases
 - CUPD
 - High cholesterol

- On-going health maintenance
 - Weight control/obesity
 - Smoking cessation
 - Flu Vaccines
 - Cancer screening
 - Prostate screening

- Women's Health Issues
 - Pelvic and breast exams
 - Pap Smears
 - Mammography
 - Bone density evaluations

VA North Texas Health Care System also provides podiatric services and can provide referrals to other specialty clinics.